EDU 2103. Social Foundations for Education in a Diverse U.S. Society. (3-0) 3 Credit Hours.

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing and passing scores on all three sections of a Texas Success Initiative (TSI) approved assessment instrument. Students will explore the relationship between school and a diverse U.S. society. They will explore the need for an educational philosophy suited for educating a diverse population; the role of ethnicity, gender, and class in the historical construction of schooling as it is today; the interactive effects of culture and economics upon and within schools; and the politics of education. Students will explore the interconnections of the above issues. Generally offered: Fall, Spring, Summer. Course Fee: LRH1 $20.54; STF1 $75; STSH $30.81; DL01 $75.

EDU 3002. Ethical and Legal Foundations of Education. (2-0) 2 Credit Hours.

This course examines the ethical and legal issues that confront classroom teachers in their professional work, by (1) introducing students to various ethical and legal issues and identifying and examining those issues inherent in schools, (2) exploring various ethical and legal frameworks and principles and their applications, and (3) analyzing current school practices from the standpoint of potential ethical and legal controversies, including the ability to recognize "preventative law" situations. In addition to identifying pragmatic approaches to ethics and law, this course also involves students in academic discourse around issues of professional ethics, equity, social justice, and the democratic underpinnings of education. Significant attention will be devoted to the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators and the Model Code of Ethics for Educators. Course Fees: LRH1 $20.54; STF1 $75; STSH $20.54.
